'ROUND 'N' 'ROUND

Although most of the trip taken to the Ford assembly plant in San Francisco yesterday under the direction of the Rotary club was largely of an educational nature, amusement was furnished by some of the men.

Richard Spiersch was seen advertising a tin hat. Although he had to use his ears to keep it from slipping over his neck he looked quite becoming in it. Dick says he is going to start manufacturing them as it is right in his line.

It remained for Henry Kreuger, though to preserve that picture for posterity, Kreuger managed to hide underneath the hat while a picture was (Continued on Page 4)

MY JUST DUE EUNICE SAYS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24.—(U.P.)—Eunice Pringle, 17-year old dancer, asked $1,000,000 in superior court late today from Alexander Pantages, the multi-millionaire showman she sent to prison on charges of having attacked her.

The story which the girl sobbed out at the grey-haired showman's trial was told again in two brief pages. She said that he lured her to a secluded conference room and there consummated an attack by force.

The damage suit was brought by the coed through her mother, Mrs. Lou Irene Pringle, as her guardian. She asked $500,000 for actual damages and $500,000 exemplary damages.

Suit "Surprise"

The suit came as a surprise. During Pantages' trial Miss Pringle and her mother, as well as District Attorney Baron Pitts had said there would be no civil action.

Fire Damages Shell Oil Still

MARTINEZ, Jan. 24.—Fire caused by ignition of vapors in a combination pump house and receiving house at Still No. 8 at the Shell Oil plant slightly damaged the still last night.

The spectacular appearing blaze was extinguished within 40 minutes by the use of foamite.

Yes, You've Guessed Right

EUNICE FRINGLE, 17 year old dancing girl whose attack charges brought a prison sentence for Alexander Pantages, theater magnate, now wants $1,000,000 of his money according to a suit filed in Los Angeles yesterday.

RHEEM FIRM TO EXPAND PLANT

At a cost of between $50,000 and $75,000, the Rheem Manufacturing company of Emeryville will start rebuilding the Republic Steel Package plant of Richmond next Monday it was announced yesterday by R. S. Rheem.

With the exception of the newest portion of the steel plant in the rear, the buildings formerly occupied by the Republic Steel Package plant will be torn down according to Rheem.

A modern factory structure of steel frame with concrete and brick walls will replace the old buildings. The work will be rushed to completion and it is expected to be ready for occupancy in 40 or 50 days.

Operation Continues

Limited operations will be continued in the building at the rear during the rebuilding.

The new structure, which will be built under the supervision of Harry J. Christianson of Oakland, will be 125 feet wide and 208 feet long. It will be of the (Continued on Page 8)

FRANCE IN COMPROMISE ON TONNAGE QUESTION

LONDON, Jan. 24.—(U.P.)—The five-power naval conference moved today from the field of generalities and oratory to precise issues affecting fleets.

"So far as France is concerned, the conference has actually started," Premier Andre Tardieu told the French press after a day of conferences with British, Americans and Japanese. He indicated, though he did not say so, that France had yielded to compromise on the global tonnage question.

French policy, termed "global," had been to fix a single total tonnage for each fleet, leaving a nation free to distribute its tonnage in any way it saw fit. Thus France could build a fleet consisting entirely of submarines, and light cruisers if it wished.

Move Opposed

Other powers, notably the United States and Britain, desired to limit navies by categories instead, and a compromise was suggested permitting any country to switch a certain amount of tonnage from (Continued on Page 8)

PLANES DROP FOOD TO MANY

BLITHEVILLE, Ark., Jan. 24.—(U.P.)—Motor powered flat boats crunched through the ice covered flood waters in the dismal swamps of northeastern Arkansas tonight rescuing more than 200 families, without food or fuel for almost a week.

A fleet of 20 boats, held at their wharfs for 48 hours by bitter cold which froze thick reefs of ice on the muddy water, finally started to remove the marooned and suffering families when warm weather broke the ice into chunks.

More than a score of isolated families in the St. Francis river valley, notorious for its frequent floods, were removed by night. Many had subsisted on strips of raw meat and uncooked corn meal (Continued on Page 4)

RACE RIOT ON 50 MILE FRONT; 2 DIE 15 INJURED

SAN JOSE, Jan. 24.—UP—Disgruntled white laborers and immigrants from the Philippine Islands had carried their open fighting over a front of 50 miles along the California coast south of here tonight.

One Filipino was dead from bullet wounds, another was killed while fleeing to San Francisco to board a ship for Manila and a white youth was in critical condition from a knife wound.

Slayer Of Nurse To Be Sentenced

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—UP—Sentence will be imposed on David Lizarra next Wednesday for the murder of Miss Edie Ashman, Red Cross official, here last fall.

Lizarra was found sane today by a jury in superior court. He had pleaded guilty by reason of insanity so the verdict was equal to one finding him guilty on a charge of first degree murder.

The defendant admitted that he killed Miss Ashman when she refused to give him money as a disabled veteran when he accosted her on the street.

EMPLOYEES TO LIVE HERE

Precision—that is the keynote of the Ford Motor company success, approximately 92 Richmond business men were told yesterday when they visited the San Francisco assembly plant of the organization in San Francisco.

The plant soon to be transferred to this city presented a picture of bustling but orderly activity as workers tried to speed up production to take care of the demand for the light car. A double shift is now at work in the assembling portion of the plant while other departments work the clock around. With the establishment of the larger new plant in Richmond late this year it is expected that a more efficient assembly of the cars will be possible, under the ideal working conditions which will be presented in the modern plant to be built here.

Groves In Welcome

L. B. Groves, general manager of the company in San Francisco, welcomed the Richmond visitors upon their arrival at the San Francisco plant and with the assistance of John Deaton, Lincoln car division manager and some 20 inspectors took the Richmond delegation through the five story plant. Workings of the various departments and the assembly line were explained to the visitors as they trooped through the plant.

Headed by Frank Moro, president, the Richmond Rotary club acted as host to the group. George N. Rooker, was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the Rotary club and was aided by Charles Engel, of the Parr-Richmond Terminal corporation. Engel arranged for a special S. F. ferryboat which had sufficient dining room space to accommodate the entire group.

Luncheon On Boat

Assembling at the Southern Pacific ferry slip here the delegation was met by Deaton and other officials of the Ford company. Luncheon was served on the dining room of the boat.

When the group arrived at the San Francisco ferry building, 40 new Ford cars which had been taken from the assembly line of the plant yesterday morning met them. Inspectors at the plant acted as drivers.

With the aid of a group of San Francisco traffic officers the caravan was taken down Market street and then to the Ford plant.

Here Soon

Here Groves extended his welcome to the visitors and stated that the company would soon be in its new Richmond plant. Groves introduced Deaton, who explained the system of gauges used in the plant to assure accuracy. This accuracy which is measured to three ten thousandths of an inch is the keynote of Ford success, Deaton pointed out. If it were not for this exactness the famous Ford assembly line which has a worldwide reputation could never exist, Deaton pointed out. With every part fitting perfectly the matter of assembling a car is a matter of routine the visitors were told.

The visiting group was then taken to the fifth floor of the plant and followed (Continued on Page 5)

Harry put a bottle on the bar. First I tasted it in the right side of my mouth, then on the left side, then over my tongue and then over my lips. I finally got the bottle when I turned to my friend and said quietly, "That, sir, is port."

This triumph of my naval acumen was not shared by the other officers. "I hated it!" from my private room, and I saw my London friends, who had the modern improvements, including a revolving bed.

The only other news about the Naval Conference I picked up is that the Americans had delegates with deck chairs. More eggs be placed in the crown's nest so that the ship's hatches will take place there. And even that may be

I HAVE always had a suspicion that many stenographers pardon, I mean secretaries—after their boss's business, but I am ten to this:

"My stenographer just handed me a slight reprimand." She said "My goodness! Mr. —, what are you scowling about?"

This letter should be put in the Business Letter Hall of Fame. It is a pippin, and the funny part of it is, the letter is a collection letter.

What are we coming to? Can you tell me?

There is one thing I recommend to you—be a collection and that is—the boss had a lot of nerve to bring the young lady in in the way he did.

At least, he was BEING NATURAL.

fully hurt but their condition was not serious. Scores of whites and Filipinos were nursing bruises from fist fights or throwing of rocks.

U. S. Takes Hand

The United States government took cognizance of the situation by sending three deputy marshals from San Francisco to Watsonville, 50 miles south of here where the race riots started last Sunday night.

Gov. C. C. Young was receiving regular reports on the situation but said he did not contemplate any action at present.

"I do not consider these disturbances sinister in their aspect and believe the worst is over," Governor Young said in San Francisco today. "I am confident that the trouble will not spread to other districts that have large Filipino population."

Veterans On Guard

Members of the American Legion and veterans of the Spanish-American war had been accepted as deputies to patrol the district, devoting most of their efforts to careful watching between midnight and dawn.

The disturbances reached here early today when Alfred Johnson, a white man, was stabbed in the back. Four Filipinos were arrested and officers claimed they were carrying a revolver, two hammers and brass knuckles.

L. J. Secundo, 25, and Permina Tovera, 22, were the Filipino victims. Secundo was killed when his automobile overturned while he was hurrying to San Francisco. The body of Tovera was found on a ranch in the Pajaro valley, near Watsonville, with a bullet through the heart.

Disputes over labor was primary cause for the trouble. White workers complained when several hundred Filipinos arrived to work in the fields and blankets were received to indicate 1000 more were coming.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Crawford, 1050 San Pablo avenue, are moving to San Francisco in the near future. Dr. Crawford will open an office there.

HURRICANE HAS MANY SCENES THAT GRIP

A thrilling, all talking motion picture about a daring wind-jammer skipper whose emotions are as turbulent as the mighty deep on which he sails, is being presented at the Fox-California theater. It is a Columbia production directed by Ralph Ince with Hobart Bosworth in the title role entitled "Hurricane." The picture is a mighty epic of the sea with adventure, drama, romance and thrills portrayed with a sweep that will grip any audience.

Bosworth gives one of the greatest performances of his career as "Hurricane" Martin, the bold mariner, admired by his men for his fearlessness, but feared by them because of his mysterious habit of indulging in maniacal laughter. Johnny Mack Brown is cast as the juvenile lead, a role in which he shines. The feminine interest is centered in Leila Hyams, who has the role of Hurricane's daughter.

Most of the action takes place aboard a wind-jammer battling its way through rough seas. A mutiny aboard the craft provides plenty of thrills. The sound and talking effects lend realism to the rioting which was impossible to obtain in the days of silent productions. There are a few picturesque shots in a South Sea lagoon where the villain, Captain Black, a pirate leader is marooned with his men.

The story is pleasing, well developed and true to life. A Mickey Mouse sound cartoon is also on the program.

being taken of the assembled group. Microscopes will probably be necessary to find the wearer.

That was an interesting game of golf on the top deck on the return trip. Most of the exercising was done by one of the deck hands whose duty it is to keep law and order on the ship. No great damage or loss was reported.

After that lecture on precision by John Deaton, Ed Hoffman and James T. Narbett, two knights of the rule were seen shaking their heads and muttering to themselves.

"Down to one millionth of an inch, can't be done, can't be done."

And manual labor has by no means been replaced by machinery, although machinery has lightened the load of man there are probably more men working today in operating machines than were formerly employed in manual labor.

Ralph Bergen mused after he had finished his tour of the plant.

And believe it or not, without a preliminary test, after the end of the assembly line was reached those cars started right up and were driven away. How do they do it? How do they do it?

Before the mechanics step into the car they place a cloth over the seat so that their grease covered clothing will not leave spots on the upholstery. Might be a good idea for some others to follow that plan and save us hours of work trying to clean up the spots.

Some of the boys in the assembly lines must have been supply sergeants in the army during the recent unpleasantness. They throw the things in place—but unlike a lot of things they tossed around in the army the parts fitted perfectly.

Best news for Richmond came from one of the inspectors who acted as our chauffeur to and from the factory. "Sure, I'm going to move over to Richmond, as soon as the plant is transferred there. You won't catch me spending several hours commuting every day. And all of the rest of the fellows in the plant I have talked to feel the same way about it."

Clear the decks, that army of workers will start arriving in the near future.

DANGER ASKS $1,000,000 IN SUIT

"At first I did not contemplate a suit," Miss Pringle told the United Press tonight. "But then I came to see that it was only my just due."

"With each day since the attack I have come to realize more and more what the thing has done to my life. It was a terrible thing that Mr. Pantages did. Now that I have brought suit I will carry it through to a finish."

The complaint was filed by attorneys Hugh L. Dickson and Theodore Gottsdanker.

"Woman's Right"

"It is a woman's right to change her mind," Dickson said.

Pantages has never dropped his claim that Miss Pringle and her manager, Nicholas Dunayev framed him. In the trial, Pantages' attorneys attempted to show that she planned a suit in Gottsdanker's office within 24 hours after her visit to the showman.

Pantages refused to comment in his county jail cell, where he is awaiting a decision on his appeal from a sentence of from one to 50 years in San Quentin prison.

"I don't know anything about it," the showman replied. "I have not anything to say and if I did I wouldn't say it. I don't want any newspaper people up here bothering around."

The complaint filed today set forth the following:

"The plaintiff went to the office of the defendant Alexander Pantages, on business and shortly after her arrival at his office, the defendant unlawfully, maliciously, forcibly and with great violence committed a criminal assault upon the plaintiff and maliciously, forcibly and unlawfully by means of great force and violence here, many were housed in empty box cars."

Engineers who surveyed the scene from the air, estimated that more than 200,000 acres of rich land was covered by the slowly receding water.

PLANE USED TO RESCUE

VINCENNES, Ind., Jan. 24.—(UP)—Hoosiers, isolated in ice and flood bound southern Indiana districts looked to the skies tonight for food, medicine and blankets. Their prayers were answered.

Six airplanes from Illinois and Indiana National Guards patrolled the flooded section near Vincennes, carrying relief to half-frozen and half-starved residents, many of whom have been out of touch with the rest of the world for more than a week.

The aviators were guided by colored ribbons, dropped by scouting planes on the ice near partially submerged farm houses. One combination of ribbons denoted need of food, another need of blankets, and another need of medicine.

The packages were wrapped carefully to prevent repetition of an accident which imperiled the lives of Lieutenants Lawrence Genaro and Walter Peck. They were forced down on the ice when a blanket became wrapped around the tail of their plane.

Gradually rising temperatures lent hope to sufferers and relief workers that the situation would be relieved naturally within a day or two.

Garland Biffle, an Arkansas lawyer, said he heard Miss Pringle and her manager talking as if they planned to "frame" the showman. Biffle was indicted for perjury and is on trial at present.

A first jury disagreed in his case.

FRAUD CHARGED IN PERJURY TRIAL

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24.—(UP)—Miss Pringle, who today brought suit for $1,000,000 against Alexander Pantages, was charged a few minutes later with deliberately perpetrating a fraud upon a jury.

The accusation was made against Miss Pringle, Nicholas Dunayev, her manager, and Theodore Gottsdanker her attorney, in the trial of Garland Biffle, who is accused of giving perjured testimony in behalf of Pantages in the trial which resulted in the latter's conviction on a charge of having assaulted the girl.

Biffle's testimony was to the effect that he heard Miss Pringle and Dunayev speak in a manner that indicated they planned to "frame" Pantages.

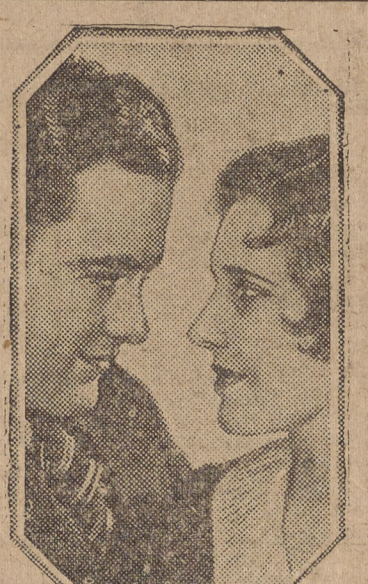

"This girl has perpetrated a deliberate fraud upon the jury," William T. Kendrick, attorney for Biffle, interrupted his closing arguments to say. "She has said time and again that she has not contemplated suit against Pantages. Now the whole thing comes out. I demand that the case be reopened and this complaint be read into the evidence."

Judge Henderson refused to admit Miss Pringle's civil complaint against Pantages, but permitted the girl, Dunayev and Gottsdanker, who testified in the Biffle case, to be subpoenaed for questioning on Saturday.

Three deaths already have been reported in the district. One man was drowned and two others were frozen to death.

The Red Cross provided blankets, tents and food for the refugees here. Many were housed in empty box cars.

HALF WAY TO HEAVEN IN RICHMOND

Youth and experience is the rare combination that Paramount has assembled for Charles—(Buddy) Rogers' newest starring picture, the all talking romantic melodrama "Half Way to Heaven," which will show at the Fox-California theater tomorrow and Monday.

"Half Way to Heaven" is an adaptation of Henry L. Gates' best selling novel "Here Comes the Bandwagon" and in it Rogers has Jean Arthur, "lovely heroine" of "The Greene Murder Case" and "The Mysterious Dr. Fu Manchu" for his partner.

Rogers himself is the youngest star in motion pictures today. Yet he has a long string of outstanding successes to his credit.

"Wings," "Abie's Irish Rose," "Ilusion" and "Close Harmony" are only a few of the pictures in which he has played leading roles and which have brought him universal favor. Jean Arthur was recently seen with Clara Bow in "The Saturday Night Kid."

Another youthful player whose fame extends across two continents is Paul Lukas, popularly known as "the Barrymore of Hungary." Lukas was famous as a stage actor in Hungary before he came to the United States to win new laurels in such pictures as "Manhattan Cocktail," "The Showman Angel" and "The Wolf of Wall Street." In "Half Way to Heaven" he is seen as the third man in the love triangle with Rogers and Miss Arthur.

George Abbott, the Broadway playwright and director who guided Rogers and directed through their first talking picture "Why Bring That Tip?" directed this new Rogers picture. Abbott also did the adaptation of the Gates' novel for the screen. Most of the action of the picture was filmed outdoors, many of the scenes showing a carnival lot and life aboard a carnival troupe train.

Also on this bill will be Fox talking news and "Collegians."

Protect Your Furniture

A $1.25 to $14 Your Home of Moths May Save You Hundreds of Dollars.

MORTEMOTH KILLS MOTHS

The gas from Mortemoth crystals not only protects your furniture for a long time, but contact with it kills all moths, their eggs and their dangerous larvae in furniture which is already infested.

The proper method of using Mortemoth crystals is to tie them in small sacks, and to place these sacks down in the channel of the piece, as deeply as possible, behind the cushions, so that, upon expansion, the gas will spread and fill the spring units in the back and in the bottom of the piece.

When the sacks are empty, fill them again.

NEW HIGHWAY FOR COUNTY PROPOSED

MARTINEZ, Jan. 24.—A new highway route through this county shortening the distance between Oakland and Stockton was suggested to the county board of supervisors today.

The new route proponents say would provide a more adequate road system to the rapidly growing communities of eastern Contra Costa county.

The project has been presented as an alternate to the proposed rebuilding of the Marsh Creek road as a highway to provide a short route between Oakland and Stockton, proposed last year.

Route Told

The suggested new route would follow the Tunnel highway from Oakland to Walnut creek; thence to Concord and over the Willow Pass route to a point almost with its junction with the present Martinez-Pittsburg highway. There it would turn east along the foot-hills following the line of the Pacific Gas and Electric company line south of Antioch and Pittsburg to join the present county highway at the Vidor highway near Oakley. From Oakley it is suggested a road be built to Orwood and a route paralleling the Santa Fe tracks be followed from there to Stockton.

The route was suggested by Ernest Ward of Pittsburg, chairman of commerce and it has been considered by the California state chamber of commerce.

No Action

No steps have been taken by the supervisors toward the building of the suggested highway although it is being considered in the general road scheme of the future.

"The plan is one that has much more appeal than the suggested Marsh Creek development," Supervisor W. J. Buchanan of Pittsburg, chairman of the board, said today. "It would serve a vastly greater number of people than the Marsh Creek route since feeder lines would be available to Pittsburg, Antioch and other communities that are experiencing rapid development. The route would not be of any appreciable greater distance than the Marsh Creek road and would be built much more cheaply."

The supervisors have taken no action on the Marsh Creek highway development, suggestion feeling it is said that "inasmuch as Oakland and Stockton would be chief beneficiaries it is to their interest to assume the burden of the project."

In light of the suggested new highway it was considered doubtful today whether the Marsh Creek plan can be brought forth again with any assurance of support.

State To Get Increase In Road Funds

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 24.—UP—A telegram indicating that California will receive a substantial increase in federal aid money to be devoted to roads in the state highway system was received from Senator Hiram W. Johnson by B. B. Meek, director of public works here today.

"The Dowell bill has been approved by Senate committee and will be reported favorably at once," the message said. "It will go to calendar and be taken up at the earliest opportunity."

Passage of the Dowell bill, Meek said, and the signature of President Hoover, will make available for federal projects on the California highway system an additional sum of $1,660,000 for the present two years and $3,000,000 for two years from July 1, 1931 to July 1, 1933.

English City Hears Radio By Telephone Wire

RAMSGATE, Eng. (UP)—Radio programs are received daily in 500 homes here merely by pressing a button. The town has a central receiving station with a powerful radio set from which programs are relayed along telephone wires to the homes of subscribers.

A loud speaker is the only piece of apparatus necessary to receive the programs. The charge for the service is about 60 cents a week. The system is said to be perfectly safe. Test boxes and lightning arrestors are fitted at various points and the whole system is protected by another lightning conductor at the station end.

The station has enough reserve strength to supply 1,600 subscribers. The receiving set is in duplicate to provide against a breakdown. The aerial, which is fitted on a steel mast 78 feet high, is duplicated also.

92 RICHMOND MEN VISIT FORD ASSEMBLY PLANT ACROSS BAY

(Continued from Page 1) o, are snapped into position and lowered the initial move in the assembling of the cars. Inspectors acted as guides for the Richmond men. All of those questioned on the move to Richmond stated that they hoped it would come as soon as possible because of congested conditions in the San Francisco plant.

Will Live Here
The Ford workers who are now employed in the plant in San Francisco will make their homes in Richmond, a number of the inspectors stated. One stated that he was already making preparations to move his family here and that others with whom he had discussed the matter would move as soon as operations started here. "We have no intentions of spending two or three hours commuting every day, when Richmond offers such excellent living conditions," the inspector stated.

The San Francisco plant is a five-story building at Twenty-first and Harrison streets and is of a type no longer being constructed by the Ford Motor company. All modern plants are either one or two stories and are built entirely without elevators. No information is now available on the height of the proposed Richmond plant, but it will be either one or two stories with a full equipment of electric cranes to move material from one floor to the other.

Fascinating Process
The Ford assembling process is a fascinating one and is the last word in intelligence and efficiency. All material starts at the top and works downward, being gradually drawn together into the finished car at the end of the famous Ford assembling line. In the case of the San Francisco plant the fifth floor is given over to storage of service parts, and the manufacturing process begins on the fourth floor where the bodies are assembled. The second and third floors are largely given over to the various paint processes by which the plain metal bodies assume the beautiful and lasting colors which make them objects of admiration on every boulevard.

Final Assembly
It is on the ground floor that the Ford efficiency is best grasped by the layman. Here is the final assembly line in the economical operation of which Henry Ford has surpassed all competitors. The assembly line is in motion, and on both sides stand the mechanics, each with a definite operation assigned to him, and this must be completed before the job passes him.

First comes the frame of the car, laid on the line in the finished shape in which it is received from the factory. To this are quickly affixed axles and wheels. An electric crane picks up the motor assembly and drops it neatly into place. The thousands of parts, big and little, of which the motor owner is unconscious, but which make the car

HIGH VARSITY, B CAGERS BEAT EMERYVILLE FIVES

LOCAL QUINTET WINS FIRST CONTEST

The varsity quintet of Richmond Union high school gained its first victory of the Alameda County Athletic league season last night when it defeated the Emeryville high school cagers 17 to 11 at the Oakland Armory.

The Richmond Union high school B squad broke through to a 19 to 12 victory over the Emeryville B athletes.

The local varsity at last found its horseshoe that has been missing during contests with Hayward and Alameda high schools. The score was evenly balanced throughout the first half of last night's game and the score at half time was 7 to 6 in favor of the Emeryville boys. The Emeryville squad made a strong drive into Richmond territory in the third quarter, and brought its own score up to 10, while Richmond had garnered not a single counter. However, before the conclusion of the third quarter the local warriors rallied to bring the score up to eight points. Things began to get mighty hot in the fourth period, and the scoreboard read 10 to 10 with but four minutes to play. Richmond suddenly broke down the strong Emeryville defense, and proceeded to gather seven points, while the Emeryville athletes were only able to sink a single foul shot. In that last rally Richmond played better basketball than it had yet played this season.

The Richmond B's met plenty of opposition in last night's game but maintained a comfortable margin during the entire game.

The Richmond Union high school varsity and B cagers will play their next league contest against the Berkeley high school Yellowjackets. Tuesday afternoon at the Berkeley high school gymnasium. Although it is fairly certain that these games will not be walkovers for the locals, the Richmondites feel more confident of victory after last night's wins over Emeryville high school.

Cecil Opposes 3 Game Series For Cage Title

The idea of having Mammy's Place and Garfinkle basketball teams play a three game series for the city cage league title is to W. L. "Doc" Seawright perfectly all right.

But Charlie Cecil, mentor of the Mammy's Place team, doesn't think the idea is so hot.

Charlie last night declared that he was "ash" the idea on general principals. He declared that league officials had not advised him that three games were to be played. In fact, says Charlie, the first time that he learned about the matter was when he read the RECORD-HERALD yesterday morning.

Charlie believes that one game to decide the city title would be just as good, if not better than a three game series.

Charlie and Seawright will probably go into a huddle sometime today and discuss the matter. Some agreement will be reached. Under Seawright's plan, the first Cecil stated last night that his lineup for the game Thursday would include Sassoni and Carnera at forwards; Arnold at center and Wicks and Oshi at guards.

WESLEY FIVE IN SECOND PLACE

The Wesley Methodists defeated the First Christians 21 to 19 last night in the last game of the regular Y. M. C. A. Church cage league. The Methodists victory sent them into second place in the league, but did not bring the Christians down from their position of champions of the league.

The St. Edmund cagers did not appear, therefore forfeiting their game to the Community Methodist cagers. Instead of the scheduled game, the Methodists played a practice game against the San Pablo Baptists who were defeated 22 to 14.

The Community Methodists and the San Pablo Baptists will meet in a clash for the championship of the B division of the league Tuesday night. The First Christians, winners of the A division will meet the winners of the B division for the championship of the entire league in three play-offs to be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

First Game
Wesley Methodists 21—Jewell 15, Powell 8, forwards; Crigler center; Back 7, Jenkins guards; substitute Carlson 1, center.

First Christians 19—Gillian 8, Santaella 3, forwards; Johnson 7, center; Abbott 1, H. Sprague, guards; substitutes Brown forward; Moore center; M. Sprague, Livermore guards.

Second Game

Liver, Gall Bladder and Stomach Trouble Relieved

2946 Morgan Ave. Oakland, Cal. Nov. 19, 1929.

HERB CO.

Dear Mr. Fong—

I am writing this letter to express my gratitude for the splendid results and benefits I have received from the use of the Chinese Herbs prepared by you. I had a complicated condition of Liver, Gall Bladder and Stomach trouble which was very serious and had been successfully treated by your Herbalist. The region of the Liver was exceedingly sore and tender; so much so that even loose clothing became irritating and uncomfortable. My Stomach was also very sore to the touch and felt as if there were a lump the size of an egg in it. After meals, food which was very sour and burned the throat, was returned to the mouth.

This condition steadily became worse over a period of a year.

During this time, I was treated by two doctors without any appreciable results. Both decided that an operation was necessary.

By good fortune, I came into contact with a man whom you had treated successfully for an Ulcerated Stomach, and he strongly urged me to take your treatment. This I did.

Results were noticeable the very first week, and now, after six weeks, I am entirely free from the terrible stabbing pains and the soreness over my Liver. My digestion is good. The old feeling of lassitude has completely disappeared and I feel much brighter and more energetic than

I have for years.

I am most happy to strongly recommend the herbs of the Fong

Wan Herb Co. as prepared by you.

Wishing you unbounded success, and assuring you for what you have done for me, I am

Very cordially yours,

CYRIL MAW.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said:

"One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged.

But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body.

Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken.

"Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

one story factory type and will have full skylight roof to permit daylight operations.

Christianson said the new building will be somewhat similar to the one now occupied by the Rheem Manufacturing company in Emeryville.

To Employ 100

Approximately 100 men will be employed at the new factory as soon as it can be placed in operation. Rheem said yesterday.

Rheem stated that the Emeryville plant would continue operations after the building of the new structure, and will remain the headquarters of the company.

The new Richmond plant will occupy 26,000 square feet of floor space. Two acres will be left for future expansion.

All Expansion Here

Rheem declared that the Emeryville plant was now being operated to capacity, and that there was no room for expansion in that city. "Therefore," he said, "all future expansion will be at the Richmond plant."

That the company intends to incorporate with a capitalization of $1,000,000 was also revealed by Rheem.

The Rheem Manufacturing company is at present a partnership between R. S. Rheem and D. L. Rheem. The brothers will continue in their official capacities with the new corporation.

A block of stock in the new corporation will be owned by the Service Station Equipment company, which had acquired control of the Republic Steel Package plant before the latter company passed into the hands of the Rheems, it was also revealed.

Controls West

By this merger the Rheem Manufacturing company will control the western territory of the John Wood Manufacturing company, a subsidiary of the Service Station Equipment company.

The Wood company, manufacturer of water heaters, range boilers and similar equipment.

Under the new merger, it is expected that the Rheem corporation will take over the manufacture of range boilers, heaters, etc. on the Pacific coast. Range heaters are now being made by the Rheems.

Steel drums and other metal containers, tanks and similar equipment for service stations, oil companies and other firms using such containers are now the principal products of the Rheem Manufacturing company.

Clyde Reservoir Receives First Water Monday

MARTINEZ, Jan. 24.—It was announced today that water would be pumped into the Chenery reservoir of the California Water Service corporation at Clyde Monday.

The structure is more than 90 percent completed, including the construction of filtration plants, pipe lines and pumping plants.

The California Gunite Construction company of San Francisco, contractors for the cement lining of the reservoir, recently completed its work and is now working on the outlet and inlet towers of the bowl.

Contract for the construction of the permanent pumping plant at Mallard Slough will be awarded the first of the week.

A temporary plant has been installed in the meantime, and will be in operation until the permanent one is completed.

With the exception of the connections at both ends, the pipeline from Mallard Slough to the reservoir has been completed. It is expected that this phase of the work will be finished by Sunday.

The reservoir will contain more than a million gallons of water, and according to engineers of the company, it will be at least ten days before it is filled.

Water will be taken from the river at Mallard Slough during flood stage, and pumped into the reservoir. All water will be purified at the filtration station before it is distributed to consumers.

FRANCE YIELDS AT NAVAL MEET

one category to another provided the other four powers were notified of such intention.

Tardieu gave indication he had accepted the compromise theory, which would permit France to transfer some of the unused battleship tonnage allotted it at the Washington conference to other classes of warships.

Tardieu said he would continue his conversations Saturday by seeing foreign minister Dino Grandi of Italy. The Italians conferred at length with Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald today, and were understood to have said they were willing for the tonnage problem to be thrashed out by England and France.

French Confer

The French and British conferred twice today, once in the presence of their naval experts. Tardieu and Dwight W. Morrow, one of the American delegates, had a short conference, presumably on the question of tonnage methods.

Some American sentiment developed today for skirting the whole technical controversy by attempting to limit navies on a basis of present and authorized programs plus Anglo-American parity and perhaps some authorized scaling down of authorized programs.

Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson chatted this afternoon with the Italian delegate, after which Grandi told American radio listeners that Italy favored the "Hoover Doctrine" for freedom of seas to food ships in war time.

In answer to protests that the American press was getting too little exact information, Stimson announced he was willing to permit representatives of the United States Press associations to attend full meetings of the conference such as was held in St. James' palace yesterday. He said he would have three advisors vacate their seats so the press association men could find places to take notes.

He said he understood other delegations were planning to do likewise.

Lot Sale Asked To Satisfy Note

In the complaint, Dispaux asks the court to place on sale 200 lots in Richmond, which he alleges belong to the Wilburs but the ownership, "is concealed to defraud creditors."

He claims the lots were transferred to the Harbor Center Land company through Crisp, without consideration to creditors.

The original judgment, according to the complaint, was for $14,209 of which $11,861 has been paid. The remainder, due Dispaux amounts to $7007, including interest he charges.
